"Hechts' Greater Stores." 513-515 Seventh Street.

Our foremost sale of women's suits and skirts.

Our best purchase—because the suits themselves are of the very highest grade and the prices are less than half what other stores are asking for the same suits—from the same makers from whom we secured these.

Tomorrow we put on sale the second shipment of these elegant suits, increasing the variety of fabrics and the assortment of colors and completing the line of sizes.

At $7.50 == suits worth up to $20. There are homespuns, in tan, blue, brown, gray and black, in tight-fitting Eton jackets, with high and low collars, slik and satin lined. There are homespuns in blouse and coat effect. There are handsomely appliqued black broadcloth suits in the assortment which are taffeta silk lined. There are brown and black camel's hair suits and brown, black and blue pebble cheviots, made in every fashionable way, with the fullest skirts, many of which have flounces or are full flaring. $7.50 for them is extraordinarily little when you take into consideration that the same suits are selling elsewhere for as high as $20.

At $12.50 == suits worth up to $30.

Black and Oxford cheviots and homespuns, with silk-lined Jackets and faced with peau de sole, with velvet collars and in coat and Eton effects and trimmed with taffeta silk; with skirts having wide flounces or full flaring. Then there are Venetians in every stylish shade and black, in tight-fitting Eton and coat effects, faced with peau de sole and trimmed with gilt braid and with full flaring skirts, and Venetians in all shades, with corded silk vests, some appliqued with gilt braid and white broadcloth and some only trimmed with gilt braid. This also is an enormous lot of suits which at $12.50 are wonderfully cheap, being values up to $30.

$2.49 for $4 skirts.

Stylish black cheviot serge skirts, both plain and trimmed, and brown and gray homespun skirts; some of which have flounces; all $4 values— tomorrow for $2.49.

$3.49 for $5 skirts. Handsome black Sicilian skirts-rich, lustrous quality - perfect black and full flaring; which, as you know, every store sells at $5, are offered you at $3.49.

$6.98 for $9 skirts. Elegant black taffeta silk skirts of a very fine grade; trimmed with satin ribbon; well lined and bound; instead of $9, for $6.98.

More of the bargain wrappers

The assortment consists of lawns, dimities, percales, batistes, &c., in an immense assortment. And in the greatest variety of styles—trimmed with lace and lace inserting, embroidery and embroidery inserting—trimmed with wide ruffles and flounces and braid: some with yokes of white lace striped dimity. They are the highest grade ready-to-wear wrappers to be had—the production of the best wrapper maker in the whole country, and you are getting them at a great deal less than they cost him to make up.

69 cents for wrappers which regularly sell for as much as $1.50.

98 cents for wrappers which regularly sell for as much as $2 to $2.50.

What about an order for your next winter's coal? Buy early and avoid strike prices. See me for prices.

In Memoriam.

AUSTIN. In loving remembrance of our dear son and brother, FRANK A. AUSTIN, who died one year ago yesterday—April 21, 1900.

JOY. In loving remembrance of my devoted husband and our loving father. JOSEPH T. JOY, who died two years ago today—April 22, 1899.

If love and care could death prevent, Thy days would not so soon be spent. Husband and father, oh, can it be Two years we have mourned for thee?

And yet it seems so fresh, the pain, We count them over and over again.

BY HIS WIFE, PAULINE, AND CHILDREN. SCHNEIDER. In loving remembrance of my kind husband and our loving father, CHRISTIAN SCHNEIDER, who died three years ago today— April 22, 1898. BY HIS WIFE AND CHILDREN.
